

Supporting success

— AT THE —

University of Huddersfield

Information
for families and friends

Deadlines, Revision and Exams

University of
HUDDERSFIELD
Inspiring tomorrow's professionals

Revise, understand, remember

It's difficult balancing exams, revision and coursework deadlines.

Family and friends can be supportive at this busy time of year.

To keep on track and organised with study plans, here are some tips students can follow.

Remember, revision is more than reading.

- | | | | |
|--|---|--|---|
| 1. Check exam dates | ✓ | 7. Have family and friends test your knowledge | ✓ |
| 2. Start early and start with a plan | ✓ | 8. Find a quiet space | ✓ |
| 3. Make a schedule that includes short breaks | ✓ | 9. Make use of university services including: | ✓ |
| 4. Get help early | ✓ | – Summon (online library) | |
| 5. Make prompts or summary notes to read quickly when needed | ✓ | – Academic Skills Tutors | |
| 6. Explain the topic to family and friends | ✓ | – Lecture capture | |
| | | – Peer revision groups | |
-

This postcard is part of our Supporting success series – see more at hud.ac.uk/supporting-success

Get more revision and exam tips by visiting the University guide here:

hud.ac.uk/revision-tips